

THE SEVEN AND FIVE SOCIETY COMPOSITION AND MUSIC WORKSHOP

Henry and Barbara - The Musical

As part of their month-long Platform residency at Site Gallery, Sheffield, award-winning singer, songwriter and theatre composer Gwyneth Herbert and critically acclaimed artist Mel Brimfield are inviting applications to participate in a free two day composition and music workshop.

WHO: Talented and imaginative musicians and composers who are open to experimentation.

WHAT: Mel and Gwyn will be opening up their own interdisciplinary devising methodologies to explore harmony, melody, rhythm and arrangement through responses to the work of revered sculptors Henry Moore and Barbara Hepworth.

WHEN: Songwriting workshop on Saturday 6 December (evening), rehearsal and recording on Wednesday 10 December (daytime) and a live performance on Thursday 11 December (evening), and a closing performance on Saturday 13 December (daytime).

WHY: Discover and develop compositional techniques and points of inspiration to take further into your practice, whilst being part of a wider exciting musical and artistic adventure.

HOW: To apply, tell us why the project appeals to you and send a CV, along with three mp3 examples of your work and any relevant links to brimfieldmel@yahoo.co.uk. Please don't send any big files.
